TERSELY TOLD

Mobile Register: Mr. Frank Smith of Pensacola, is spending the day in Mobile.

John Astleford, of De Funiak, was in the city last night en route home from Chattanooga.

Kenneth Bruce, of De Funiak, was among the visitors to the city yesterday.

W. R. Boone and J. A. Gunter, of Georgiana, Ala., were among the prominent business visitors to the city yesterday.

Christmas buying will be heavy today. Better get down early so as to not get crushed in the rush tonight.

Have you noticed The Journal's want ad page is increasing in interest? It gets bigger and better almost daily.

G. W. King, formerly a resident of this city, but now in business at Graceville, in the city, accompanied by Mrs. King.

Rev. B. C. Glenn, of the Palafox Methodist church left last night for Shorters, Ala., being called there by the serious illness of his mother.

The churches are all requested to send The Journal the programs for their Christmas services early to-day to insure publication in to-morrow's edition.

Captain J. E. Turtle, engineer in charge of the local fortifications and harbor, returned yesterday from a short trip to the eastern portion of the state.

Mrs. C. C. Herman, who left Pensacola last summer and located in Kentucky, is expected to arrive this afternoon and will remain permanently in Pensacola.

Miss E. Nellie Beck, The Journal's talented society editor, returned yesterday from a very pleasantly spent vacation of several weeks in Cincinnati, Ohio. Miss Beck returns greatly rested and with new enthusiasm for her work. Her popular department may be expected to shine brighter than ever now during the coming month.

Editor R. W. Storrs, of the De Funiak Breeze and of the Stockman, passed through Pensacola last night from Chicago where he attended the stock show. Mr. Storrs is very enthusiastic over the fine specimens of blooded stock which he saw there and much of the information gained thereby he will use in his work of encouraging the breeding of high grade cattle in Florida.

One of the enjoyable occasions of the holidays will be the Christmas tree to be given by the Sunday school of the Palafox Methodist church on the evening of Thursday, December 28. Preparations for the festivities are now being made, and the young people of the Sunday school are anxiously awaiting the arrival of that date.

In your Christmas shopping, don't fail to include a bottle of Blue Ribbon Lemon and Vanilla Extract. They are so pure and strong that every drop counts, and besides they give your desserts the famous "Blue Ribbon flavor."

MRS. BOGHICH WAS SEVERELY BURNED

Clothing Caught from Some Burning Trash, and She is in Serious Condition.

Mrs. Boghich, wife of engineer Mark L. Boghich, of the L. & N., was severely and perhaps fatally burned yesterday afternoon at her home, No. 700 East Gregory street. Her condition last night was pronounced very serious.

From what could be learned Mrs. Boghich was burning some trash in her yard, when her clothing caught fire. She did not notice the fact for some few minutes and when she did it was too late to extinguish the flames, which soon enveloped her.

Her screams and efforts to put out the fire soon attracted members of her family and friends nearby, and they finally succeeded in extinguishing the flames, but not until she had been terribly burned.

The flames covered her from head to foot and there is hardly a portion of her body which is not blistered from the flames. She was assisted into the house, and Dr. Renshaw, the family physician, called. Everything possible was done to relieve the suffering of the lady, but the burns are severe and she is suffering greatly.

Engineer Boghich, who has been in New Orleans for several days, was telegraphed to last night and told of this accident and it is expected that he will reach home this morning.

FIREWORKS WILL BEGIN THIS MORNING

The City Ordinance is Suspended Until January 2 by Order of the Mayor.

The discharging of fireworks commences this morning and the boys of the city can enjoy themselves to their hearts' content in producing noise after 7 o'clock.

A city ordinance prohibiting the discharging of fireworks will virtually be suspended from this morning until January 2, the mayor having issued a proclamation allowing the discharge of fireworks during this period.

This proclamation, however, does not give any person the right to discharge cannon crackers over four inches in length, to use canes or to discharge firearms.

Other noise producers, however, can be used, and it is expected that the streets will resound this afternoon with the reports of the crackers that will be discharged by the boys. In fact the noise has already started and a number of loud reports have already been heard, which notified all of the approach of the holiday season.

Of course the police will have their troubles during the holidays. The mayor's proclamation prohibits the discharge of a cannon cracker over four inches in length. When the cannon cracker is discharged and is blown to atoms, the police officer will have a pretty hard time judging whether or not it was over four inches in length, but with this disadvantage it is not expected that the officers will have much trouble in making the boys and young men comply with the orders issued by the mayor.

Hemming Table Linen.
Table linen should, of course, be hemmed by hand. That is "the correct thing," but the hemmer of the machine can be made very useful for this purpose in the following manner: Place the edge of the cloth beneath the hemmer. Do not thread the needle, but as you turn the hem let it run through the machine. Turn and press thus the full length of every side. Then take from the machine and hem in the usual way by hand. The neat turning of the hem is the main work. This accomplished, the rest is soon over.

Falling Hair.
Falling hair has many causes, but nervous troubles are the most common. Too frequent washing of the scalp, especially with harsh soap, borax or ammonia, weakens the hair and is liable to make it fall. Dandruff is a common cause and should be attended to. The use of combs is to be condemned, especially those which are too fine for the hair. Your comb should be coarse and used as little as possible. It should never pull and never rake the scalp.

Sofa Pillows.
Sofa pillows made up in the shape of a football are not much larger than a football and are covered with burlap, denim, calfskin or most anything and sometimes lined up with leather thongs in close imitation of the real thing. They are down filled and nice to tuck in hollows.
